Call for application: Youngsters On The Air Italy 2015

It's already time for the 5th edition of the Youngsters On The Air summer event. In 2015 the youth radio camp will take place in Italy, organized by ARI (Associazione Radioamatori Italiani)

In this week teams of young radio amateurs from several countries will be participating in all kind of amateur radio activities. Think about workshops, contesting and ARDF, we will try to show many aspects of the radio hobby. Off course you will also get the chance to learn about other cultures, in the famous intercultural evening you will get the chance to try food and drinks from all participating countries. As we go to Italy, we will also show you the country and Italian traditions.

This is just a little bit about what we are going to do in this event. It will be a great experience for all participants which they will never forget. To get a better feeling about this, have a look at the gallery from previous events.

When: 18-25 July 2015

Participants: each IARU member society is invited to take part with a team. A team consist of maximum 5 persons; 4 Persons with the age 15-25 years and one person is dedicated as team leader. The team leader could be an older person. However it is preferred to choose a younger team leader or your member societies youth coordinator. As there will be special workshops for youth coordinators.

Make sure the participants are radio amateur/SWL or interested in ham radio, it is a responsibility for the member society to select the right participants.
